THE PENITENTIARY CONTRACT.—The committee appointed to confer with the Messrs. Coleman Brothers to negotiate the part of the State for the release of the contract for building the Penitentiary, reported to the Senate last night, to the effect that these gentlemen will release the contract for the sum of $35,000. An interesting debate ensued, a synopsis of which will be found in our report elsewhere.

The bill passed the Senate, and being afterwards transmitted to the House, that body by a large vote.

OFFICE.—Mr. J. J. Minette, of London, has for sale a Tenon Machine spoke Lathes, with all the necessary fixtures for making spokes. See advertisement elsewhere.

VOL. II.

RALEIGH. N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1873.

NO. 1.

ITEMS FROM OUR OXFORD CORRESPONDENT.—Our Oxford correspondent, under date of yesterday, gives us the following items:

Mr. J. H. Mills arrived in town a few days ago with several Orphans destined to be placed under the care and instruction of Rev. A. D. Cohen, the Principal in charge of the Asylum. This institution is just in its inception, and is eminently worthy of the fostering care of the people of the State. Mr. Cohen states that anything that persons see fit to give, whether in the shape of money, clothing, food or other necessities, will be most acceptable. Sugar, coffee, and flour, bacon, beef, beans, &c., may be donated by many whose store-houses of abundance are literally filled to the brim.

Any one who will go to the Asylum and take a survey of the interesting group of youthful inmates, with their bright and smiling countenances, will have the best of his heart stirred within him by the success of an institution fraught with inestimable blessings to an unfortunate and bereaved portion of the rising generation that otherwise, perchance, might be rudely tossed on the billows of the lowest strata of society, where temptations to the indulgence of vice are ever present and the inducements to practice of virtue are absent.

The ladies of Oxford have rendered valuable assistance to Mr. Cohen in making various articles of clothing that the destitute portion of the orphans rendered it necessary that they should have at once to protect them from actual suffering.

Charles D. Hill of the firm of Hill & Skinner of Richmond, Va., is on a visit here looking after the interest of his house.

It is reported that Mr. W. Hamilton young Attorney at Law, will soon take up his residence at Oxford. We trust soon to hear the confirmation of the report.

LEGISLATIVE.—The Senate yesterday concurred in the House Amendments to the Amnesties bill, and the same is now a law. The Revenue bill passed its last reading, after some slight amendments to the bill as passed by the House. The Senate appropriated $5,000 for the erection of a building suitable for the use of the deaf, dumb and blind for a colored asylum. The Treasurer was authorized to borrow the Treasury of the State, to meet a deficiency existing, the sum of $140,000.

The Senate will go into Executive session to-day at 12 o'clock to consider the appointments of the Governor for the offices recently made vacant under the recent decision of the Supreme Court.

The proceedings of the House were of an unimportant character. An unsuccessful attempt was made by Mr. Jordan to get up the militia bill. It is now improbable that the bill will be reached this session.

The House last night concurred in the Senate amendments to the Revenue bill, the most important of which was the tax upon foreign insurance companies.

MR. ANDERSON EXCUSSED.—The following resolution was introduced in the House of Representatives on Thursday evening by Mr. Gudger and adopted: The resolution explains itself: "Whereas, The committee appointed to investigate the matter of the letter written by J. S. Anderson, a member of this House, to J. W. Norwood, Senator of this General Assembly, have reported that 'Mr. Anderson had no purpose to infringe the privilege of Senator Norwood, &c., therefore, Resolved, That it is the sense of this House that J. S. Anderson was not actuated by or guilty of any corrupt purpose in writing and sending said letter, and is therefore fully exculpated from all charges against him in this House.'

SICK AND DESTITUTE.—On Thursday evening, just as the shades of night were deepening, the police picked up an unknown white man on Hargett street in a sick and destitute condition. He was conveyed to the station house, and nourishment and medical aid given him. He has obstinately refused to tell his name, but says that his home was in Newberry, S. C., but now in Nansemond county, Va., whether he was going when overtaken by sickness. He is at present provided for at the City Hotel where every attention is paid to him.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL.—The second number of this journal, published in this city by Capt. R. T. Hightmum, is published this morning, and presents a most handsome appearance. A list of its contents can be found in our advertising columns. Copies of the paper can be seen by application at the office. It is worth only $2 per annum, and is clubbed with the News at $3.

THOS. C. FULLER.—We are glad to learn that this distinguished gentleman has concluded to remove from Fayetteville to Raleigh, and will in future practice law in this city in co-operation with Messrs. Merrimon and Coleman.

Another happy man.—Our esteemed young and fellow-citizen, Mr. Herbert, was united in marriage on Wednesday evening to one of Hillsboro's daughters, Miss Mary E. Heath, daughter of L. E. Heath, of this city. In connection with a host of friends and couple, both in this city and Hillsboro, offer our good wishes. We hope the current of their lives will never be disturbed by a single wave of adversity flow on smoothly to the end.

FIGHT FOR THE SPOILS.—It is announced confidentially, in Republican circles in this city, that the official head of Calvin Rogers, the Postmaster of this city, goes to the block, and ex-Gov. Holden takes upon his shoulders the mantle of that decapitated functionary. This is considered certain by the know-nothing ones. It is also asserted in the same circles that Hon. W. A. Smith has recommended the appointment of Willy D. Jones, ex-Assessor, as Revenue Collector of this district vice J. J. Young, the present incumbent. So it is settled that Mr. Young's head is to roll. We suppose Mr. Smith is paying a debt of gratitude.

Mr. Jones, after finding out that he could not get the Congressional nomination last summer for himself, threw his influence for Mr. Smith and succeeded, after a hot and close contest, in securing him the nomination against Mr. Young. This is a family fight for the "loaves and fishes," and we don't care a cent which whips. We should like to see the fight terminate like that of the Kilkenny cats.

We also learn that it is decided that Mr. Albert Johnson, of this city, is to succeed Mr. Leach as Vice Principal and Steward of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum. It is rumored that the slate is made up for the distribution of the other offices connected with the different institutions in and around this city, but we have not yet learned the particulars.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met yesterday at the usual hour. All of the Judges present.

John G. Dancy, Adm'r, of Halifax, vs. W. H. Smith, et al, Battle & Son and Conigland for plaintiff, and Moore & Gatling for defendants. Argument concluded.

John G. Dancy, Adm'r, of Halifax, vs. John J. Long, et al, Battle & Sons for plaintiff, and Moore & Gatling for defendant. Argument concluded.

The Court adjourned before the argument in the case of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad vs. David A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer, from Wake, Messrs. Batchelor, Edwards & Batchelor, Smith & Strong and Walter Clark for the plaintiff and the Attorney General for the defendant.

The Court meets again this morning at the usual hour.

GOV. CALDWELL'S APPOINTMENTS.—The Boards of Directors for the different Institutions in and about this city, sent to the Senate by Governor Caldwell, and which will be acted on by that body in executive session, to-day at 12 M.

Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.—John Nichols, T. Lee, Albert Johnson, T. M. Argo, R. S. Tucker, C. D. Heart and Handy Lockhart, Centinitary.—Gen. Alfred Dockery, John R. Harrison, G. W. Welker, Willie D. Jones and Jacob S. Allen.

Inane Asylum.—Wesley Whitaker, R. C. Badger, Dr. E. B. Haywood, J. P. Prarie, J. G. Ramsay, G. W. Stanton, Dr. T. L. Banks, C. L. Harris, Jas. W. Hood, Geo. W. Brodie, T. G. Walton, Henry Walser, Dr. M. Whitehead and Dr. A. B. Chappin.

Keeper of Capitol.—Isaac W. Rogers.

ROWAN COUNTY.—Rowan county has reason to be proud of her Representatives, Messrs. Luckey and Craige. The latter has been detained from his seat for several days during the last week, but is always at his post when able to attend. This is Mr. Craige's first session in the Legislature, but he has taken his stand in the House of which his friends may well be proud.

Dr. Luckey was in the last Legislature, and was well known as one of its most useful and efficient members. During the present session he has labored with great diligence and zeal in the performance of his public duties, and is entitled to the thanks of his constituents and of the people of the State for his services in their behalf.

RESIGNATION OF A SENATOR.—Mr. Respaud of Beaufort, representing the Second Senatorial District, yesterday resigned his seat in the Senate in consequence of his holding a position under the Federal Government, and the late order of the President concerning government officials going into effect on Monday.

Mr. Respaud is a Republican, but we must accord to him the justice to say that his course during the session just closing has been commendable, and we have seen but little party spite evidence by him.

MONDAY'S SESSION.—It is highly probable that much important business will be left on the calendar to be disposed of on Monday. The members should not be so anxious to leave before the session shall have positively closed—let everything be done that is possible before the session of Monday closes.

CANING.—The employees at the Mow Sewing Machine establishment, in this city, yesterday gave Mr. Carrier, the gentlemanly agent, a handsome caning. He doubtless deserved it.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NIGHT SESSION.

THURSDAY, Feb. 27.

At 7:30 o'clock Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order. The first question was on the motion of Abbott, col., to reconsider the vote by which the bill for amnesty and pardon passed its third reading, and which, on motion of Mr. Settle, was tabled—yeas 88, nays 14.

The bill to incorporate the Plymouth and Fairfield Railroad Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to regulate mortgages by corporations and sales under the same was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Gudger introduced a resolution in favor of J. S. Anderson. A bill to authorize the Commissioners of the town of Washington to levy a special tax.

The bill to authorize the Commissioners of Cumberland county to levy a special tax passed its second reading—yeas 87, nays 1.

The resolution in relation to Mr. J. S. Anderson, exculpating him from blame in reference to his letter to Senator Norwood, was adopted.

The bill in relation to the charter of the town of Trenton, in Jones county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to incorporate Jonesboro, in Moore county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill concerning dams across Catawba river was taken up, and, upon motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, was laid on the table.

The bill in reference to public bridges over the Dismal Swamp Canal was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to authorize a survey of the State line between Cherokee county and Tennessee was taken up and passed its several readings.

The resolution in favor of John H. Hill passed its several readings.

The bill in favor of the heirs of Jesse McKoy passed its several readings.

The bill in reference to the Wilmington Ship Canal Company was, on motion of Mr. Morrison, laid upon the table.

The bill to incorporate the N. C. Classes of the Dutch Reform Church was taken up and passed its several readings.

The resolution in favor of the Enrolling and Engrossing clerks passed its several readings.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Feb. 28th, 1873.

Senate called to order at 10 o'clock, Lieut. Gov. Brogden in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Norwood gave notice that he would introduce a resolution to the effect that the two Houses go into executive session to-morrow at 12 o'clock, in order to consider the message from the Governor transmitting his nominations for the offices of the different State Institutions, under the recent decision of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Respaud, Senator from the Second District, tendered his resignation, in consequence of being an officer of the United States. An address was read to the Senate from that gentleman bidding farewell to the Senators, and expressing his appreciation of the courtesy with which he had been treated.

Mr. Cunningham asked the unanimous consent of the Senate to take up a bill introduced by himself to allow the town of Milton to issue bonds.

Mr. Cunningham said the bill authorized the Commissioners of Milton to submit to the qualified voters of the town the question of issuing bonds of said town to the amount of $10,000 to aid in the construction of a Railroad from said town to some point on the Richmond & Danville Railroad at or near Barksdale's station. That Milton was a very flourishing town—having built in the last two years several large warehouses, that the farmers of the surrounding counties sold the larger part of their crops of tobacco there—that the town is free from debt—and that the Board of Navigation Company charged for the mere privilege of boating in Dan River the freight between Milton and Barksdale's, an amount sufficient to pay interest on said bonds annually.

It was objected to this bill on the second reading that it was unconstitutional. On examination he found that all the authorities were in his favor. The Supreme Court had decided it to be constitutional. Mr. C. cited the decision. He also found that other acts of the same kind had been passed. The bill passed its third reading unanimously.

Mr. Troy introduced a resolution to repeal an act for exchanging the stock held by the State for bonds by which the said stock was purchased.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, called up a bill appointing a time for submitting the proposed Constitutional Amendments to the people. The same to be submitted to the vote of the people of the State on the first Thursday in August, 1873. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Humphrey, a resolution concerning the exhibition of maps and descriptions of the State at the World's Fair at Vienna. Laid over under the rules.

Mr. Fowler, of Hillsboro, incorporating the Lockville Locomotive and Car Company, and the Haw River Iron Company. Referred.

A number of reports from Standing Committees were made.

The Amnesties bill, was transmitted from the House with amendments.

Mr. Seymour offered an amendment providing that the provisions of the same shall not refer to any member of the Union League, Red Strings or Heroes of America.

Referred to Judiciary Committee to report at once upon an amendment made by the House.

The bill concerning the Marion and Asheville Turnpike Company, carrying out the provisions of the act incorporating the same, was again considered, the vote by which it failed three days ago having been reconsidered. Lost by a vote of 18 yeas, 24 nays.

A motion to reconsider the vote was laid on the table.

The "Committee" liquor prohibition bill was reported from the Committee of Conference of the two Houses, embracing various amendments. Concurred in.

Mr. Allen reported from the Judiciary Committee the amnesty bill.

Mr. Seymour's amendment to excuse certain parties was lost—17 yeas, 25 nays.

The House amendments were concurred in.

Mr. Merrimon, a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Buncombe county.

The Chair announced a message from the Supreme Court, transmitting an opinion of Judge Rodman concerning service rendered by Judge Henry. Recommending that he be paid $350 for holding certain Courts.

Mr. Merrimon offered a resolution that the same be paid Judge Henry. Adopted.

Bill concerning the laying off of public highways in Burke and Mitchell counties. Passed.

Bill concerning the working of the Penitentiary convicts upon the Western Division of the W. N. C. R. R. Passed.

A bill amending the School Act. Passed.

Resolution concerning the distribution of the laws of '69. Passed.

Mr. Murphy, a resolution appointing Dr. Wm. R. Sharp and Captain C. B. Denon members of the Board of Public Charities. Adopted.

The Revenue Bill was put upon its third reading, and after being amended so that the Register of Deeds be entitled to fifteen cents for each return made by any merchant—to be paid by the county—with some other amendments of a minor character, it was passed.

Bill concerning the establishment of an institution in Raleigh for the colored Deaf, Dumb and Blind passed its several readings. It authorizes the appropriation of $5,000 for the erection of a suitable building for the purpose on a portion of the public grounds in Raleigh. Bill passed its third reading by yeas 89, nays 9.

During the debate upon this bill, Messrs. Murphy and Scott made warm and earnest appeals in favor of the unfortunate who it was sought to benefit.

Mr. Chamberlain called up bill preventing the obstruction of fish passing up Roanoke river. Passed its several readings.

Resolution in favor of Sheriff of Buncombe county, and John Bowles, of Catawba—that they be allowed by the Treasurer money for the warrants which they had taken up in favor of the Marion and Asheville Turnpike Company. Failed to pass.

Resolution providing for a deficit in the Treasury. Authorizes the Treasurer to borrow a sum not to exceed $140,000. Passed its several readings.

Bill for the relief of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum—appropriating $15,000 to the same. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Cowles called up bill for changing the time of holding the Courts in the 10th Judicial District. Passed.

Bill to repeal certain parts of chap. 170 of laws 1868-'69. Passed. Adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

Lieut. Governor called the Senate to order at 7 o'clock.

The following bills passed third readings: Bill to re-charter the Hickory Nut Turnpike Company.

Bill to repeal chapter 79, law 1868 and '69.

Mr. Waring, Chairman of the Committee appointed to negotiate with the Messrs. Coleman Brothers in regard to their relinquishing the Penitentiary contract, submitted an elaborate report, stating that the Messrs. Coleman would surrender the contract upon the payment of $35,000. Report accepted by a vote of 25 to 8.

Mr. Waring introduced a bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay the Messrs. Coleman Brothers for rescinding the penitentiary contract $35,000, according to the report of the Committee.

Mr. W. supported his bill in an earnest manner, stating that the State could save thereby more than $200,000—the work could be done by the convicts at a nominal cost.

Mr. Welch opposed the measure, as he thought the contract itself was a fraud, and should not be recognized.

Mr. Gudger could not favor the bill, as the State Treasury could not stand such a tax upon it.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, thought this the easiest way of getting out of the dilemma. The Legislature had recognized the contract as good, and it was too late now to declare otherwise. He thought $35,000 a cheap release to the State.

Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, endorsed the views held by Messrs. Waring and Morehead. This release would be a happy one to the State.

Mr. Norwood said there was a time when the State could have gotten rid of this contract—but it could not be done now. We were now bound by the contract, and he thought this was a good release.

Mr. Troy would vote for this bill with pleasure. The contract would give a profit to the contractors of more than a quarter million of dollars. The Messrs. Coleman Brothers have a legal right to carry out the contract and to hold the State responsible, and he thought the State would be fortunate to be released at the figures named.

Mr. Welch again argued that he did not believe the State was legally bound to the Messrs. Coleman Brothers.

Mr. Merrimon thought the contract was valid, and could not be undone except in the manner proposed.

Mr. Worth said the State was firmly bound, and it was only a question as to whether we would repudiate—to refuse to negotiate or to carry on the contract would be one branch of repudiation.

The bill passed its second reading by a vote of 31 yeas, 7 nays.

Bill passed its third reading by a vote of 33 yeas, 6 nays.

Messrs. Cowles, Ellis, of Catawba, Gudger, Horton, Powell, Seymour and Welch voting in the negative.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1873.

CLOSE OF OUR FIRST VOLUME.

On the first day of March, 1873, we commenced the publication of the Raleigh Daily News. For twelve months, we have labored to discharge the responsible duties incident to our position in a manner worthy of the support and confidence of the public. We have labored to promote the success of the Conservative party by a steady advocacy of its principles and a firm adherence to its authoritative behests. We have labored to preserve the organization of our party, and to rescue it from disintegration and ruin. Our course in the past is the highest assurance of our future action.

We believe the success of the DAILY NEWS is unexampled in the history of daily papers in this State. We are deeply grateful to our friends for their kind efforts and encouragement in our enterprise. We will strive to show our appreciation of their support by a faithful endeavor to make our paper more acceptable to them as well as to the public at large.

IS HENRY BERRY LOWREY DEAD?

A report that Henry Berry Lowrey is still alive, has been started by the papers, and a correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Wilmington, N. C., under date of February the 24th, says a rumor prevails there, that Lowrey is now living in New York.

We do not believe that any evidence, except hearsay, has ever been furnished of Lowrey's death.

The first seemingly authentic statement on the subject was from Henderson, the sensational correspondent of the New York Herald, who penetrated the dens of the outlaws, and by a week's visit, acquainted himself with their characters, modes of life and peculiar habits and purposes. Henderson received from Stephen Lowrey and the others their statements concerning the death of Henry Berry, to the effect that he accidentally shot himself, and the place of the alleged fatal occurrence was pointed out to Henderson. We stated at the time that we put no confidence in any of Henderson's statements, although they might be true. His letters contained such palpable misrepresentations of the people of Robeson County that we were not inclined to accept as true anything he said on any subject.

Another report afterwards gained credence, that Henry Berry had been slain by one of his own band in a personal altercation, but this was not afterwards confirmed by any positive evidence. However, as he had not been seen anywhere in the vicinity of the haunts of the outlaws since Henderson went among them, the public mind became convinced that Henry Berry had met his death in some form or other, and the question was put at rest until the revival of the late rumor that he is now living in the city of New York.

The evidence stated by the Wilmington Herald is not sufficient to warrant the belief that Lowrey is now living in New York. The only confirmation of this assertion is the statement that Rhoda Lowrey is in the habit of receiving packages of clothing, jewelry and other articles by Express from New York, which are sent to her by her husband.

Such evidence is too flimsy to cause much importance to be attached to the report. If Henry Berry Lowrey is alive and in New York, the detectives in that city will not permit the eleven thousand dollars offered for his capture to be long without a claimant.

We are free to declare that we have never had all doubts removed from our mind concerning Lowrey's fate. While several circumstances seem to point to his death, the conflicting accounts leave the matter in confusion; and while we do not credit the rumor that he is in New York, we would not be much surprised if it should turn out that the reports concerning his death are after all untrue.

If alive, Lowrey has doubtless left North Carolina forever, and the people of Robeson need never have any apprehensions of future outrages at his hands.

THE ANDERSON LETTER.

In the House of Representatives, on Thursday evening, Mr. Gulger, of Madison, introduced the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, The Committee appointed to investigate the matter of the letter written by J. S. Anderson, a member of this House, to J. W. Norwood, a Senator of this General Assembly, has reported that 'Mr. Anderson had no purpose to infringe the privilege of Senate Norwood, &c.'"

Therefore Resolved, That it is the sense of this House that J. S. Anderson was not actuated by or guilty of any corrupt purpose in writing and sending said letter, and is therefore fully exculpated from all charges against him in this House."

It having been proved before the Committee that Mr. Anderson was not the real author of the letter, but copied it after it was sketched by Josiah Turner, the Committee recommended that the House deal as leniently with him as possible. The following is the Committee's report, submitted in the House on Tuesday:

The Committee appointed by the House to investigate the matter of the letter written by J. S. Anderson, a member of the House of Representatives, to J. W. Norwood, Senator, in the General Assembly, report as follows: The Committee have examined Mr. Anderson, and his evidence, together with that of other members of the House, and have submitted for the action of your body. It will be seen by the testimony adduced, that the letter in question was sketched by Josiah Turner at the instance of Mr. Anderson, and re-written with possibly a verbal amendment by Mr. Anderson. Your Committee are of opinion that Mr. Anderson had no purpose to infringe the privileges of Senator Norwood by writing the letter, and that he really did not know that the contract already made in reference to the public printing was protected by the safeguard of the Constitution of the United States. In this case, he has exceeded the bounds of sound discretion, and put himself, to say the least of it, in a very awkward position. We recommend that the House judge him with as much leniency as is deemed consistent with the facts submitted. —BENNETT, for the Committee.

The Editor of the Sentinel, in the issue of 26th instant, says that he told Mr. Joyner, of Johnston, "that certain members had the Amnesty Bill much at heart and it a few members threatened to vote against the Amnesty Bill, he could then force them into a caucus, where we would show that certain Rings were at work in the party."

We wanted the Amnesty Bill to pass and resorted to this means of obtaining a caucus through Mr. Norwood's tears for the fate of the Amnesty Bill. * * * We told Messrs. Anderson and Joyner to go before the Committee and put the whole matter of the blame at our door. We would take it all. And we do."

The Editor of the Sentinel thus assumes the whole responsibility of the Anderson letter. The Hillsboro Recorder commenting on the letter says: "Pro positions embracing threats, to make important measures hang upon the fate of others, totally irrelevant in character, but dependent upon the same votes for their success, destroy entirely all independence of action, and result in a debased system of bargain and consideration, degrading legislation, and bringing Legislators into contempt."

This position will be sustained by right thinking men everywhere, and the public will form its own opinion of the propriety of such conduct.

[From the Wilmington Star, Wilmington, Fayetteville and Greensboro-New Railroad Line.

Col. Bennett, of Anson, has introduced in the House of Representatives a bill which authorizes the transfer of the State's interest in the Western Railroad to any person or corporation that will guarantee the extension of that road from Fayetteville to Lumberton and its completion from Egypt to Greensboro; a bond to be given in the sum of $500,000 conditioned that the entire line shall be completed within three years.

In the Senate, Col. Morehead, of Guilford, has introduced a similar bill, so far as the line from Egypt to Greensboro is concerned, but he omits entirely the additional requirement that the road shall be extended from Fayetteville to Lumberton.

We really cannot see how any member of the Legislature can hesitate as to his choice between the two bills. Col. Bennett's bill guarantees the completion of about 74 miles of railway; and this will give and unbroken and unfettered connection between Wilmington and the West. Col. Morehead's bill only proposes to build about 40 miles of railway, and, if built, we have every reason to believe that the Southern Railway Security Company will be the owners or controllers of the line.

We beg the Legislature of North Carolina to pass a bill that will tighten the ligatures with which the Southern Security Company have already bound us. Rather give us an opportunity to loosen the letters, even if we cannot break them. That corporation, under the shrewd manipulation of Tom Scott, has already secured the control of nearly all the railways in the State. They have the North Carolina road, and the Richmond and Danville road with its terminus at Greensboro. What, then, would add more to their joy than would be offered them by the passage of the Morehead bill? This would enable them to extend their line from Greensboro to Fayetteville, and the latter town would be robbed of her legitimate trade within gunshot of her corporate limits.

Let Colonel Bennett's bill pass, however, with the Fayetteville-Lumberton proviso, and the Tom Scott cormorants will be driven from the field in dismay; for we feel assured that parties will be found to complete the whole line within a reasonable time, and our Western friends will thus have a choice of markets between Wilmington and Fayetteville.

It is evident that the Western Railroad Company cannot complete their road without aid from others; and the State's interest in that corporation is almost valueless. Certainly, this seems to be the impression at Raleigh; and if any transfer of that interest is to be made, let it be done according to the provisions of Colonel Bennett's bill, so that our own people may reap the benefit of it.

Credit Mobilier—The Summing Up.

Ended at last. The great investigation has ceased. The wrangling witnesses have wiped their sweaty brows and stepped down, the uneasy committee has ceased to shudder at its own inquiries, the implicated members have stopped short in the middle of their crookedness, Congress breathes freer than for two months past, and a disgraced people walks backward with averted eyes and hides its shame. From the first it has been a tangled maze of inconsistencies, contradictions, untruths, perjuries. Let us gather up the ends from all this snarl of testimony and see, if possible, just where we stand. For the committee has finished its work and made its report, and a resolution pending containing the conclusion of its labors. It is a rare and valuable illustration of the feebleness of the inquiry and the tremendous force of the political organization that controlled and directed—yes, and enunciated it. It is a fitting resolution; a very proper issue of an inquiry that had but one object, to wit: to complement the Presidential campaign of 1873 with a verification and endorsement of the methods by which it was carried. It fits the case admirably; it is entirely in keeping with history. It insults the honesty and intelligence of Congress, as the honesty and intelligence of the people were insulted during the canvass. It is just such a sham and cheat as the denials that were not denials, and the disclaimers that were not disclaimers, during the heat of the campaign.

Let us remember a little. The Tribune was denounced last summer and fall by these men for telling the false and calumnious story of their holding stock in the Credit Mobilier. For asserting the same thing in a public speech, Mr. Greeley was assailed and vilified as no honest public man has been in our history. With one accord they all—did what?—explain their connection with it—admit that they held the stock, but insist that they held it honestly, or that when they suspect it was of questionable morality, they got rid of it at once? Not by any means. They dropped it in their tracks and either by themselves or friends denied utterly all knowledge of it. And the people did then what they can never do again while the world stands—took their word for it, and denounced the story as a calumny. How has this timid investigation that looked around all pertinent inquiry and never asked a hard, rough question that smote a lying witness in the face, and that finally has wrecked itself on two scapegoats instead of punishing half a hundred—has this investigation let them? Read the evidence. With varying degrees of guilt or guilty knowledge, every man of them, with but one exception, has been obliged to confess that at some time he had held this stock, and that some under stress of conscience he got rid of it, that is not fully proved—got rid of it.

Go slowly now over the list of calumniated Congressmen. James G. Blaine. The only exception in the list. He was born under a star as lucky as his predecessor's was unlucky. The Tribune made haste to say as early in the investigation as the fact appeared that the Speaker was exonerated.

John A. Bingham, of Ohio, received the stock and the dividends, was not conscious of having been influenced by it, and was not ashamed of the transaction. The only member who held it and did not try to squirm out of it.

James A. Garfield, of Ohio, had ten shares; never paid a dollar; received $329, which, after the investigation began, he was anxious to have considered a loan from Mr. Oakes Ames to himself.

Glenn W. Scofield, of Pennsylvania, had ten shares, and received dividends thereon; became dissatisfied and returned it to Ames, receiving back his money and interest.

Wm. D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, was very much confused in his memory; thought at first it was a very proper thing for a Congressman to hold, but denied that he had any of it; thought he had borrowed $1,000 of Oakes Ames, which Ames, on the contrary, said he had paid him as dividends from Credit Mobilier. Upon discovery that stock actually stood in his name, changed his mind about the honesty of the transaction, and turned it over to the United States Government.

Henry L. Dawes, of Massachusetts, who wrote a letter during the campaign denouncing the statement that he held Credit Mobilier as a libel, had ten shares, which he paid for and afterwards sold back, getting the amount paid and interest at ten per cent.

Secretary Boutwell had it offered him, turned it over with a stick at arm's length, and declined to keep it. Henry Wilson, who during the campaign stood by consenting to the statement of Gen. Hawley which conveyed to the people the impression that he had no knowledge of the speculation, is discovered to have held stock in the name of his wife for awhile, and then, frightened, as he says, at prospect of a law suit, to have returned it to Oakes Ames, getting back, like the others, his investment and interest at ten per cent.

Senator Patterson, of New Hampshire—ah, well, his case is known already. There is nothing to be added. And Schuyler Colfax!

Well, the wickedness of all of it, not that these men were bribed or corruptly influenced, but that they betrayed the trust of the people, deceived their constituents, and by their evasions and falsehoods, enmeshed the transaction to be disgraceful. And now a whole Congress of grown men is to deliberate seriously upon a resolution that puts the sine of all this upon two, Fugate ship has never stooped so low as this before. We cannot believe the resolution will pass. No, gentlemen of the American Congress, this is no answer to the people. Stop all this. Pass no resolution. Drop it where it is. Remand it to the whole business to the people. You have only scratched the surface of the whole inquiry—leave it now. Face outward. March!

CENTURY WHISKEY!
Persons in delicate health, often find it difficult to obtain a Pure Stimulant when prescribed by their Physicians, and it is for Druggists and other first-class trade that the
CENTURY WHISKEY
is particularly designed. It is differently prepared from ANY WHISKEY IN MARKET, and is driving many old brands out of market, because the "principle upon which it is made is superior."
The utmost universal testimony of those who have used the CENTURY WHISKIES
is, that there is an entire absence of Head-aches, and that it does more good so often experienced in the use of other brands. This is a direct consequence of the Purity of the Century Whiskies, and the impurity of many other brands. They are ABSOLUTELY PURE; our prominent chemists certify to this fact, viz:
Prof. SILLMAN, State Chemist of Connecticut.
Prof. C. O. SHEPARD, Jr., State Chemist of South Carolina.
Prof. W. C. TILDEN, Washington, D. C.

GUANO! GUANO! GUANO!!!
BUY THE BEST
SOLUBLE SEA ISLAND GUANO!
State of Premium at Wilmington for the Largest Amount of Cotton to an Acre.
GOLDSBORO, Wayne County, N. C., November 23rd, 1872.
JOHN H. POWELL, Esq.:
DEAR SIR—The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you this season was used by the 3rd of three others, and has given me more satisfaction than any of the others. The Soluble Sea Island Guano was the one used upon the acre of land upon which I raised the cotton upon which he took his State premium for the greatest amount of cotton to an acre; and I am informed of the Chairman of the Committee that had been held for the largest amount of cotton to the acre, premiums open to all ages, he would have also taken that premium, beating all 150 lbs. I am better pleased with it, than any other Guano I have used on cotton, and I shall use it in preference to all other Guano next season for my cotton crop.
ALSO EIGHT PREMIUMS AT WAYNE COUNTY FAIR
The Amount of Seed Cotton made on an Acre of Upland by Mr. Cranmer was Three Thousand Six Hundred and Thirty-three Pounds.
EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., December 12th, 1872.
Messrs. R. W. L. RAISIN, H. B. B. & Co., Baltimore:
I bought of Messrs. Branch, Horbet & Co., last spring, one ton of your Soluble Sea Island Guano for myself and three tons for other parties, and I find them all well pleased with it, and say it is the best Guano, and put the matter rather than any they ever used. The ton I used myself was put in cotton by the side of two other guanos, and I am willing to say that I should buy the Soluble Sea Island Guano in preference to any that I have used since the war.
Very respectfully,
J. R. GREEN.
SLMA, N. C., November 12th, 1872.
W. H. AVERA, Esq.:
DEAR SIR—The ten bags Soluble Sea Island Guano more than met my expectations. I consider it equal to Peruvian for cotton. It paid over 100 per cent. I more than doubled the crop. My neighbors who bought it are highly pleased, and will use it in preference to any other when it can be had. He you will keep a supply the coming Spring.
Truly yours,
R. HARE.
LUSBURG, N. C., December 4th, 1872.
E. W. FULLER, Esq.:
DEAR SIR—I tested your Guano this year and the result, I will use it on my cotton crop next year.
Yours, &c.,
ELLIS MALONE.
HENDERSON, Granville County, N. C., November 29th
To S. J. PARHAM:
The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you was used on tobacco and by me by the side of Peruvian Guano, Stoneve of the Sea Island. I like it much better than the other, and I observed a marked difference in favor of the Sea Island.
E. S. ROY.
HENDERSON, Granville County, N. C., November 29th
HENRY BURRELL, Esq., has stated that he made a test this season of the tobacco crop, using two other higher-priced guanos, but he found that the Soluble Sea Island Guano is the cheapest guano he ever purchased, and shall use it in preference to all other guano.
YANCEYVILLE Caswell County, N. C., December
Captain W. P. ROBINSON:
DEAR SIR—In reply to your inquiry to how I liked the Sea Island Guano, I wish to say that I applied it 200 lbs. to the acre, alongside of Peruvian Guano and Gillham's Tobacco Fertilizer equal quantities; it stands the test better than either of the above fertilizers. I sowed the cotton on the hill and cured it more yellow than either of the other guanos used. I think it is a splendid fertilizer and I expect to use it next season.
Yours, respectfully,
MARCELLUS
WILSON, N. C., January
Messrs. HARRIS & BLACKWELL:
GENTS—I used this season, on cotton crops about 15 tons of your Soluble Sea Island Guano, testing it by the side of Manasse and Vegetator, and up to heavy washing rains last of June, I was greatly pleased with its action and better pleased than with the other.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Cape Fear is falling rapidly. Jno. G. Saxe is to visit Wilmington. Sheriff Masten, of Forsythe county, is dead.

Charlotte is amused by private theatricals. Sneak thieves are harassing the Wilmingtonians.

Sam Perry, the Burgaw wife murderer, is still at large. Wilmington is luxuriating upon lettuce and radishes.

Prof. Girard is amusing the citizens of Washington with feats of acrobaticism. A crazy woman named Dicky Dunn was sent to the Newbern jail on Wednesday.

Joe Doss and wife are in the Surry county jail for the murder of their child. S. H. Wiley has been elected President of the W. N. C. L. A. Fair Association.

The headmaster in the colored Baptist church in Salisbury have got to rowing among themselves. The "Married Men's Club" in Tarboro on Tuesday evening, was a great success.

The new road from Wilmington to Manteo Sound is being surveyed and cleared. The radicals of Wilmington are already fixing up a slate for the next municipal election.

The Bible Society of New Hanover recently organized by the election of A. A. Wiland president. A colored woman the other night, in Newbern, was set upon and badly beaten by a party of women of the same color.

Says the Washington (N. C.) Express of the 25th inst: "The body of an unknown man was found Sunday evening floating in the river near Ragged Point. The body had been in the water so long and the head is so mutilated that it is impossible to tell whether it was a white or colored person. (And inquest) will be held over the body to-day."

Says the Goldsboro Messenger of the 27th inst: "We learn that a colored man, while engaged in ditching on a farm near North River, Carteret county, was almost instantly killed a few days ago by the falling of a tree which he was in the act of removing. When his wife came to him she found his almost lifeless body clung to the ground under the tree. He died shortly afterwards."

The Tarboro Southern of the 27th inst. says: "The latest reports in the county, held on yesterday, guarantee the election of Mr. Jos. Cobb, the Radical candidate."

No returns from other townships than Tarboro. In this township the vote stands as follows:

Cobb,	393
Stamps,	72
Total,	465

Cobb, of course, is elected. Who expected anything else?

In regard to the supposed Whitley murder case, the Charlotte Observer of the 26th inst. says:

"On Tuesday afternoon, the body of John Whitley, the colored man who was supposed to have been murdered, was found in a cotton patch near the residence of his former master in Long Creek township. He was discovered lying on a log, by his side the jug of molasses and other goods which he had bought on the evening when last seen alive. It is now supposed that he froze to death on his way home. Coroner Little proceeded at once to hold an inquest over the body of the dead man, but up to the hour of this writing, had not brought in a verdict."

There were no marks on the body of Whitley, and it is therefore certain that he did not come to his death by violence. Henderson, who was arrested on suspicion of being the murderer of Whitley, will, no doubt, be set at liberty."

Important news comes to us from Russia. It is stated that a formidable insurrection has broken out among the peasants of Volhynia and Podolia—two provinces of Russian Poland—and that the insurrectionists detected a Russian force sent to suppress them, and are committing frightful atrocities. Volhynia is one of the most valuable agricultural provinces of Russia, having an area of about 27,000 square miles; while Podolia, with an area of about 10,000 square miles, is equally rich, the inhabitants of that locality rotting much of their time in cutting timber. The story is true that the insurgents are murdering their opponents, and plundering and burning property in all directions; it is evidently the outcropping of that bitter hostility of a conquered race to their oppressors, which long years of apparently peaceful submission have failed to uproot. "It is the eternal law that where guilt is, sorrow shall answer it," and governments who, in their lust for power, trample on right and justice, are no more exempt than individuals from the fatal consequences of crime."

AN INCIDENT OF THE CONGRESSIONAL Session of Tuesday.—(Special to the Norfolk Journal).—Dick Halderman, Simon Cameron's son-in-law, stalked in, late in hand, slightly intoxicated, and finding a lady in his seat and not knowing what was doing, walked up in front of the speaker and moved that the floors be cleared. The motion was received with roars of laughter.

The grand jury, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of New York, on Thursday made a presentment in favor of the Legislature passing a law which will make the carrying of a pistol or concealed weapon, except in cases provided for, an offense to be punished with great severity. They say the evil is a growing one, and should be stopped at once. The Court said it heartily endorsed the recommendation.

A Madrid letter states that, since the abdication of Amadeus, the candidature of the Prince of Hohenzollern for the throne of Spain has been revived.

All the good people in England have been going to their established churches every Sunday for ever so long without discovering that their prayer books were deficient in parts of the orthodox liturgy until just now, when the "Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge" has detected divers delinquencies, and is hauling the Queen's own printers over the coals thereof.

It is said that a Texas poet has written an epic called "The Railroad to Heaven." If there were really a railroad both to Heaven and Hell, there are millions of respectable travelers in this world who would take the road which furnished the best accommodations or happened to be the most liberal in the distribution of complimentary tickets.

Under Sheriff Stevens in New York on Tuesday, was served with the notice of a stay of proceedings granted in Stokes' case. The notification arrived just in the nick of time to prevent Mr. Stevens from notifying the proper officials to attend the execution, and to set aside other preparations that the Sheriff, by law, in default of the service of the notification, was about to make to carry Stokes' sentence into effect.

A defeated litigant in Wyoming demands that the verdict against him be set aside, on the ground that one of the jurors had her baby with her in contravention of the law, which ordains that no thirteen person shall be present during the deliberations of the jury.

Cincinnati announces that she will send to the Vienna Exposition "three magnificent paintings." The barrel of whisky in each of them is so skillfully drawn that it almost makes you drunk to look at it.

Victoria Woodhull is out with a fresh threat against Henry Ward Beecher, and says she will follow him through his Western lecture tour, and speak wherever he does on the evening following his lecture.
